SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Bellows Free Academy—Fairfax (BFA-Fairfax) is a comprehensive PreK-12 school system with approximately 920 students of which 291 are in grades 9-12. The system consists of three levels: elementary, middle and high school. Each level has its own unique curriculum for the developmental stage of the students. The curriculum is aligned with National Standards (i.e. Common Core, C3 and NextGen Science) for scope and sequence. BFA-Fairfax is located in a small Vermont community with a population of approximately 5100. It is situated 30 miles northeast of Burlington, Vermont's largest city. Residents are employed in small business and agriculture and commute to positions in manufacturing, business and the professions in the Greater Burlington Area.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

In accordance with the State of Vermont law students in the Class of 2020 and beyond will need to meet our Proficiency-Based Graduation Requirements in order to graduate. Each content area has determined specific skills that are essential for students to know, understand, and be able to do within their discipline. Proficiencies are broad categories. Examples include Geometry, Writing, Historical Inquiry and Analyze & Interpret Data. Each Proficiency is further defined by a set of Indicators that provide additional detail regarding what students should know, understand and be able to do. Content Indicators and Transferable Skills (life and career skills that are essential outcomes for students) are clearly specified for each learning activity. Learning Scales define learning and map growth toward Proficiency. Feedback, reflection, and formative assessments inform instruction prior to summative assessment. Click the link below for more information about proficiency - based learning at BFA-Fairfax. <https://sites.google.com/fwsu.org/bfa-fairfax-proficiency-guide>

The academic format is based on a four-by-four block scheduling system. All classes meet daily for 50 or 75 minutes. Most classes are one semester in length while some are full year. AP courses are offered in English Language, English Literature, U.S. History, Government & Politics and Calculus AB.

"Mini-Mester" (MM) courses are intensive, hands on and interdisciplinary courses taught in the last two weeks of the school year.

PERSONALIZED LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

BFA—Fairfax is committed to offering a wide variety of learning opportunities for our students. Students may enroll concurrently in local college courses for high school and college credit(s). Sophomores, juniors and seniors have the opportunity to enroll in technical education programs at Essex (CTE) and Burlington (BTC) technical centers. The students who enroll in technical programs must complete BFA graduation requirements and tech program requirements. Students may also gain proficiency through: Do Unto Others (DUO) program designed for community service opportunities, online courses through Vermont Virtual Learning Collaborative (VTVLC) and PLATO Online. And also through Independent Studies (IS).

GRADUATION WITH DISTINCTION

Students have the opportunity to graduate with distinction in the following areas by completing certain course and extracurricular requirements.
